Frank H. Sippy, Ph.D.
Superintendent of Schools

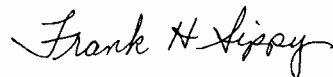

19 November 2009

Dear Parents and Guardians:

With a later than normal start for the 2009-10 school year, and because according to State law the school year must conclude no later than June 30, we only have seven days available as make-up days for this school year. In the event we need to make up more than seven school days, I will begin deducting days from the Spring Recess working from Monday, April 19, to Friday, April 23.

Certainly, I share your hope that we do not have to use the Spring Recess as make-up days. However, the unpredictability of weather and effect of influenza causes all of us apprehension and worry. It is best to avoid any potential problem and/or conflict by not scheduling plans during the 2010 Spring Recess.

Sincerely,

Frank H. Sippy
